A Christmas Cracker of a Walk

Tuesday 5th & Thursday 7th December 2023

Why do we decorate trees at Christmas? Or send Christmas cards? When did turkeys wear leather boots and postmen red uniforms? Who was Santa Claus? And did his reindeer really fly?

These and many more questions will be answered on our Seasonal WI guided walk around Leicester, when you can enjoy an entertaining collection of stories old and new about our best-known Christmas traditions and customs. It's fun, it's friendly, it's festive!

5th and 7th December 10.30am coffee and mince pie, followed by walk from Town Hall Square 11.15am

5th and 7th December 12.45 pm coffee and mince pie, followed by walk from Town Hall Square 1.30pm

Cost - £7 per person including Coffee/Tea and a mince pie at Bishop Street Methodist Church Coffee Shop

Closing date 20th November

p.s. Why not add to the festive atmosphere by wearing something a little Christmassy?
