

Federation Online Events Programme

L&RFWI have put together an exciting programme of online events for our members to enjoy over the next few months.

The events are FREE to members of WIs across the Federation.

This is a great opportunity to see WI members from around the Federation and enjoy a range of speakers and topics.

Wednesday 31 March 7pm

Tuesday 20 April 7pm

The Ghosts of Hampton Court with Sarah Slater

A talk by Hampton Court Palace Guide Lecturer about experiences working with the ghosts at Hampton Court Palace, the history, stories and sightings.

Wednesday 12 May 7pm

From crying in supermarkets to being the 1st woman to paddleboard 162 miles coast to coast! With Jo Moseley

In August 2019, Jo became the first woman to SUP (stand up paddleboard) coast to coast 162 miles along the Leeds Liverpool Canal, picking up litter, fundraising and raising awareness of the problems of single use plastic. She describes herself as a beach cleaner, joy encourager & midlife adventurer.

How to Book

To book your place on each event, simply email WI House (wihouse@lrfwi.org) with

- Your name
- Name of your WI
- Title of the event
- Email address for the Zoom link to be sent to

Bookings will close at 12pm the day before each event.

All online events are held on Zoom, the link for each event being emailed to you directly. Full details of how to access the Zoom event will be provided in the booking confirmation email, along with the event link and entry time.

These events may be recorded & photographed, we will presume permission unless we are otherwise informed.
