

Leisure Activities event

Public Art walk

Tuesday 8th, Wednesday 9th (Mobility friendly),
Thursday 10th & Saturday 12th October 2024

From the tops of buildings to the pavements we walk on, public art is free to look at but often passed by unnoticed, and yet it holds a wealth of fascinating and sometimes controversial stories from the past. Our walk will feature many different types of art, varying from dramatic classical figures depicting War and Peace to a huge montage portraying hundreds of years of the market place. Also included are famous Leicester names such as Simon de Montfort, William Wygton and the suffragette Alice Hawkins, along with others who are commemorated in public artwork. And finally, you will have the chance to count exactly how many lions can be found in Town Hall Square!

From 10.30am, meet at Bishop Street coffee shop for tea/coffee, followed by walk starting at Town Hall Square at 11.15am

Cost - £7 per person including Coffee/Tea/Cake at Bishop Street Methodist Church Coffee Shop (LE1 6AF)
Closing date 24th September 2024
