

Yearbook Privacy Statement

Leicestershire & Rutland Federation of Women's Institutes will use the data provided in their yearbook which is distributed to members electronically and as a paper copy. The data is processed on the basis of legitimate interests. The yearbook enables WIs to communicate with Federation Committee members, other WIs and speakers in order to maintain the running of the group. The data will be kept for the duration of the yearbook publication. If consent has been given the information will be shared on the LRFWI website (<https://leicestershire-and-rutland.thewi.org.uk/>).

As we use the cloud based service (Office 365) to store and send information, it is possible that this information will be transferred to and stored in a location outside the UK or the European Economic Area (EEA). Please note that certain countries outside of the UK or EEA have a lower standard of protection for personal information, including lower security protections. Where your personal information is transferred, stored, and/or otherwise processed outside the UK or EEA in a country which does not offer an equivalent standard of protection to the UK or EEA, we will take all reasonable steps necessary to ensure that the recipient implements appropriate safeguards designed to protect your personal information. If you have any questions about the transfer of your personal information, please contact us.

LRFWI would like to make sure you are fully aware of all of your data protection rights. You are entitled to the following:

The right to access – You have the right to request copies of your personal data.

The right to rectification – You have the right to request that we correct any information you believe is inaccurate. You also have the right to complete any information you believe is incomplete.

The right to erasure – You have the right to request that we erase your personal data, under certain conditions.

The right to restrict processing – You have the right to request that we restrict the processing of your personal data, under certain conditions.

The right to object to processing – You have the right to object to us processing your personal data, under certain conditions.

The right to data portability – You have the right to request that we transfer the data that we have collected to another organisation, or directly to you, under certain conditions.

If you make a request, we have one month to respond to you. If you would like to exercise any of these rights, please contact us.
