#The Lady Poisoners of Victorian England Meet two ladies cruelly betrayed by their lovers. What did they do next? Of course, they took a trip to the pharmacy and purchased a packet of deadly poison.

Welcome to the true tales of two ladies with one word on the tip of their tongues...Murder! True Stories of Murder in Victorian England For those of you who enjoy a more blood curdling tale, we visit the home of a retired teacher who is eccentric, bad tempered and cannot keep her staff. And then one day she hires a servant...who is too good to be true! The Amazing Mr. Dickens! Be thrilled by the life of the world's greatest storyteller, from his early childhood working in a factory, to his illustrious life as a writer, journalist, and social reformer. With readings from Oliver Twist & Great Expectations. Manners Please, Dearest! Welcome to the extraordinary world of Victorian etiquette! You are all invited to attend a Victorian Finishing School for Young Ladies where you will discover the Do's and Don'ts of courtship, calling cards, dinner party etiquette, and the mysterious language of the fan. Great Fun! The Weird & Wonderful World of The Law An enjoyable romp through the legal world: drawing on over 25 years as a locum solicitor travelling around England, meeting raging judges, dotty clients, and daft old laws still in place! The Making of Casablanca A behind the scenes look at one of the world's most romantic films. The incredible story of this back-lot B movie which became a Hollywood classic.

#Step Back in Time – Great British Eccentrics - a highly amusing talk which looks at some of the World's great Eccentrics & Rogues who just happened to be British! You Stupid Boy! Were Britain's Home Guard a group of dodderly old men with a few stupid boys thrown in? Or Britain's last line of defence to protect against the German invasion in the summer of 1940? An informative and moving presentation.

You've never had it so Good A nostalgic look back at society, culture, news, and music from the wonderful golden decade that was the 1950's. Jack the Ripper – Paul returns to the East End of his childhood to talk about the World's greatest "criminal who done it" in history. Painting a vivid and moving picture of the East End of London in the late Summer and Autumn of 1888 Paul reviews the crimes, the main suspects, and offers his own suggestion as to the identity of the Whitechapel murderer AKA Jack the Ripper. The Life and Career of Sir Winston Churchill Paul charts the long and unique life of the man voted greatest Britain of all time. Was he the saviour of his Country or a Political chancer? A warts and all look at Britain's war time leader. The 60's a decade of change - Do you remember flower power, the 'I'm Backing Britain' campaign, Emergency ward 10, and dancing to the Beatles or the cold winter of 1962/3? Nostalgia in abundance for those lucky to have lived in Britain during this never to be forgotten decade. East London, the Cockneys and Cockney Rhyming Slang. A Cockney by birth, Paul tells the story of the East End describes how the East End and the famous events that took place there. The talk includes a lesson in how to understand and speak Cockney Rhyming slang. The English Civil War. The history of a merciless conflict whose scars and impact can still be seen today, both physically and in the way our society and democracy functions. Paul explores the origins and causes of the conflict that split families and communities.

#Life is a Cabaret - It's the 20's – again! And along with the glorious age of jazz, the 1920's brought us the heyday of cabaret, captured perhaps most notably in the 1972 Liza Minnelli movie by Bob Fosse. 100 years on, Paulus invites you to join him in a celebration of this much misunderstood art-form, which has been pivotal to the inclusion in the arts of some of our most vibrant, colourful and outlandish artistes. So, dust off your feather boas and top hats, and pop some prosecco as we explore the wonderful world of cabaret! 30 mins talk includes singing, ukulele playing, full makeup and glittery costume as standard. Extra 15mins Q&A time if desired.

#Support Dogs – is a registered national charity dedicated to increasing independence and quality of life for people with various medical conditions. We provide, train and support specialist assistance dogs to achieve this. We help children and adults affected by autism, epilepsy, and disability to lead more independent and active lives. From keeping children safe, to alerting their owners prior to an oncoming seizure, from raising the alarm in emergencies to helping with a huge range of day to day tasks. Our support dogs transform the lives of not only the individual but their families too.
